1. On 3 and 4 October 1953 and during the night of 3 October, constant traffic of army trucks was observed in Gdynia, coming from the direction of Gdansk (Danzig) along ul. Swietojska in a westerly direction.
2. The trucks drove mostly in twos. They were occupied by soldiers wearing field uniforms and full armament; they were always preceded by a combination motorcycle, with a soldier holding a PPSH machine gun in the side car.
3. The trucks must have come a considerable distance, since they were covered with dust and mud.

25X1

Comment. Polish troops returned from their summer maneuvers to Gdansk on 4 October. It is quite possible that the same occurred in Gdynia on the above date.
